1. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

2. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

3. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

4. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

5. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

6. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

7. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

8. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

9. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.

10. The fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed, not on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is less than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed. If the number of claims in the amendment is greater than the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the amendment. If the number of claims in the amendment is the same as the number of claims in the application as filed, the fee is based on the number of claims in the application as filed.
